Hello Father God,

I humbly and boldly come before Your throne in the name of Your Son, Christ Jesus to ask for forgiveness for sinning against You knowingly and unknowingly.

Forgive me for allowing my problems, uncertainties, fleshly desires, emotions, & resentments to drive a wedge between You & I. Taking my focus off of You has allowed these things to cloud my spiritual understanding of Your Word, and of the promises You have for my life according to Your will.

God, the fact that I am alive speaks to Your grace and mercy for me. You have and are providing the things that I need, such as the ability to see, hear, talk, walk and think. For this I am grateful! I sometimes forget, ... if I believe, trust, and have confidence and faith in You, then I need to walk in those things.

I forget that I serve a God who is not worried, anxious, uncertain or confused about anything... so why should I be? Please forgive me Father and continue to teach me Your ways so that You can use me for Your purposes as You have done with Your Son and all of Your children who have come before me. I love you and need you in my life.

Your Son, Ivan
